Exercise of Company's entitlements in respect of uncertificat

Where any class of shares is a participating security and the Company is entitled under any provision of the Act or these Articles to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, forfeit, re-allot, redeem, accept the surrender of, or otherwise enforce a lien over, a share held in uncertificated form, the Company shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of the Act, these Articles and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system:
- (a) to require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to change that share into certificated form within the period specified in the notice and to hold that share in certificated form for so long as required by the Company;
 - (b) to require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to give any instructions necessary to transfer title to that share by means of the relevant system within the period specified in the notice;

 - (d) to require the operator to convert that uncertificated share into certificated form in accordance with applicable law; and
 - (e) to take any action that the board considers appropriate to achieve the sale, transfer, disposal, forfeiture, re-allotment or surrender of that share, or otherwise to enforce a lien in respect of that share.

Residual
powers

9. Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to authority, pre-emption rights or otherwise and of any resolution of the Company in general meeting passed pursuant to those provisions, and, in the case of redeemable shares, the provisions of Article 10:
- (a) the board has general authority to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot shares and to grant rights to subscribe for and to convert any security into shares;
 - (b) all shares shall be at the disposal of the board; and

shares

10. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares, shares may be issued which are to be redeemed or are to be liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder. The board may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of shares provided that it does so before the shares are allotted.

Commissio ns

11. The Company may exercise all powers of paying commissions or brokerage conferred or permitted by the Act. Subject to the provisions of the Act, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

Trusts not recognised

12. Except as required by law, the Company shall recognise no person as holding any share on any trust. The Company shall not be bound by or recognise any interest in any share (or in any fractional part of a share) except the holder's absolute right to the entirety of the share (or fractional part of the share) except:
- (a) where shares are part of a collective deposit or a book-entry deposit of shares recorded in the register in the name of the relevant intermediary or Euroclear Netherlands (Nederlands Centraal Instituut voor Giraal Effectenverkeer B.V.), the Company shall recognise the relevant intermediary or Euroclear Netherlands as the legal holder of such share and shall recognise the EI Holder as the holder of the rights attaching to the relevant share (including without limitation beneficial interest, dividend rights and voting rights); or
 - (b) as otherwise provided by these Articles or by law.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS

Method of varying rights

13. Subject to the provisions of the Act, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of allotment of the shares of that class) be varied or abrogated, whether or not the Company is being wound up, either:
- (a) with the written consent of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares), which consent shall be in hard copy form or in electronic form sent to such address (if any) for the time being specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or in default of such specification to the office, and may consist of several documents, each executed or authenticated in such manner as the board may approve by or on behalf of one or more holders, or a combination of both; or
 - (b) with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class, but not otherwise.

When rights deemed to be varied

14. For the purposes of Article 13, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, unless otherwise expressly provided by the rights attached to any share or class of shares, those rights shall be deemed to be varied by:
- (a) the reduction of the capital paid up on that share or class of shares otherwise than by a purchase or redemption by the Company of its own shares; and
 - (b) the allotment of another share ranking in priority for payment of a dividend or in respect of capital or which confers on its holder voting rights more favourable than those conferred by that share or class of shares,
- but shall not be deemed to be varied by:
- (c) the creation or issue of another share ranking equally with, or subsequent to, that share or class of shares or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of its own shares; or

- (d) the Company permitting, in accordance with applicable law, the holding of and transfer of title to shares of that or any other class in uncertificated form by means of a relevant system.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

Members' rights to certificates

- 15. Every member, on becoming the holder of any certificated share (except a recognised person in respect of whom the Company is not required by law to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall be entitled, without payment, to one certificate for all the certificated shares of each class held by the member (and, on transferring a part of the member's holding of certificated shares of any class, to a certificate for the balance of the member's holding of certificated shares). The member may elect to receive one or more additional certificates for any of the member's certificated shares if the member pays a reasonable sum determined from time to time by the board for every certificate after the first. Every certificate shall:
 - (a) be executed under the seal or otherwise in accordance with Article ~~191~~ or in such other manner as the board may approve; and
 - (b) specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up on the shares.

The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for certificated shares held jointly by more than one person and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them. Shares of different classes may not be included in the same certificate.

Replacement certificates

- 16. If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and payment of any exceptional out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence and preparing the requisite form of indemnity as the board may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

LIEN

Company to have lien on shares

- 17. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys payable to the Company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share. The board may at any time (generally or in a particular case) waive any lien or declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount (including without limitation dividends) payable in respect of it.

Enforcement of lien by sale

- 18. The Company may sell, in such manner as the board determines, any share on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within 14 clear days after notice has been sent to the holder of the share, or to the person entitled to it by transmission, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the share may be sold.

Giving effect to sale

- 19. To give effect to that sale the board may, if the share is a certificated share, authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer in respect of the share sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. If the share is an uncertificated share, the board may exercise any of the Company's powers under Article 8 to effect the sale of the share to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. The buyer shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money and his or her title to the share shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in relation to the sale.

- Application of proceeds 20. The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of so much of the sum in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. Any residue shall (if the share sold is a certificated share, on surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate in respect of the share sold and, whether the share sold is a certificated or uncertificated share, subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed on the share before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

- Power to make calls 21. Subject to the terms of allotment, the board may from time to time make calls on the Shareholders in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal value or premium). Each Shareholder shall (subject to receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company the amount called on his or her shares as required by the notice. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may be revoked in whole or part and the time fixed for payment of a call may be postponed in whole or part as the board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made on that person even if the shares in respect of which the call was made are subsequently transferred.

- Time when call made 22. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising the call was passed.

- Liability of joint holders 23. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of it.

- Interest payable 24. If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable until it is paid. Interest shall be paid at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed, the rate determined by the board, not exceeding 15 per cent per annum, or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act), but the board may in respect of any individual Shareholder waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

- Deemed calls 25. An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call duly made and notified and payable on the date so fixed or in accordance with the terms of the allotment. If it is not paid the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Differentiation on calls

26. Subject to the terms of allotment, the board may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the allottees or holders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

Payment of calls in advance

27. The board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any Shareholder all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on any share held by him or her. Such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish the liability on the share in respect of which it is made to the extent of the payment. The Company may pay on all or any of the moneys so advanced (until they would but for such advance become presently payable) interest at such rate agreed between the board and the Shareholder not exceeding (unless the Company by ordinary resolution otherwise directs) 15 per cent per annum or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act).

FORFEITURE AND SURRENDER

Notice requiring payment of call

28. If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable, the board may give the person from whom it is due not less than 14 clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture for non-compliance

29. If that notice is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was sent may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board. The forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited share which have not been paid before the forfeiture. When a share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be sent to the person who was the holder of the share before the forfeiture. Where the forfeited share is held in certificated form, an entry shall be made promptly in the register opposite the entry of the share showing that notice has been sent, that the share has been forfeited and the date of forfeiture. No forfeiture shall be invalidated by the omission or neglect to send that notice or to make those entries.

Sale of forfeited shares

30. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a forfeited share shall be deemed to belong to the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the board determines, either to the person who was the holder before the forfeiture or to any other person. At any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the board thinks fit. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share held in certificated form is to be transferred to any person, the board may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share held in uncertificated form is to be transferred to any person, the board may exercise any of the Company's powers under Article 8. The Company may receive the consideration given for the share on its disposal and may register the transferee as holder of the share.

Liability following forfeiture

31. A person shall cease to be a Shareholder in respect of any share which has been forfeited and shall, if the share is a certificated share, surrender the certificate for any forfeited share to the Company for cancellation. The person shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him or her to the Company in respect of that share with interest on that amount at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before the forfeiture or, if no interest was so payable, at the rate determined by the board, not exceeding 15 per cent per annum or, if higher, the appropriate rate (as defined in the Act), from the date of forfeiture until payment. The board may waive payment wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on its disposal.

Surrender 32. The board may accept the surrender of any share which it is in a position to forfeit on such terms and conditions as may be agreed. Subject to those terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

Extinction of rights 33. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only those rights and liabilities expressly saved by these Articles, or as are given or imposed in the case of past Shareholders by the Act.

Evidence of forfeiture or surrender 34. A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The declaration shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer or transfer by means of the relevant system, as the case may be) constitute a good title to the share. The person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, and his or her title to the share shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

TRANSFER OF SHARES AND EIS

Form and execution of transfer of certificated share 35. Without prejudice to any power of the Company to register as Shareholder a person to whom the right to any share or EI has been transmitted by operation of law, the instrument of transfer of a certificated share or EI may be in any usual form or in any other form which the board may approve. An instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee. An instrument of transfer need not be under seal.

36. The board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share or EI which is not fully paid, provided that the refusal does not prevent dealings in shares or EIs in the Company from taking place on an open and proper basis.

Invalid transfers of certificated shares 37. The board may also refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share unless the instrument of transfer:

(a) is lodged, duly stamped (if stampable), at the office or at another place appointed by the board accompanied by the certificate for the share to which it relates and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;

(b) is in respect of only one class of shares; and

(c) is in favour of not more than four transferees.

Transfers by recognised persons 38. In the case of a transfer of a certificated share by a recognised person, the lodging of a share certificate will only be necessary if and to the extent that a certificate has been issued in respect of the share in question.

Notice of refusal to register 39. If the board refuses to register a transfer of a certificated share or EI, it shall send the transferee notice of its refusal within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company.

No fee payable on registration 40. No fee shall be charged for the registration of any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to a share or EI.

Retention of transfers 41. The Company shall be entitled to retain an instrument of transfer which is registered, but an instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is sent.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

Transmission 42. If a Shareholder dies, the survivor or survivors where the Shareholder was a joint holder, and his or her personal representatives where the Shareholder was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his or her interest. Nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased Shareholder (whether a sole or joint holder) from any liability in respect of any share held by him or her.

Elections permitted 43. A person becoming entitled by transmission to a share or EI may, on production of any evidence as to his or her entitlement properly required by the board, elect either to become the holder of the share or EI or to have another person nominated by him or her registered as the transferee. If he or she elects to become the holder he or she shall send notice to the Company to that effect. If he or she elects to have another person registered and the share is a certificated share, he or she shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. If he or she elects to have himself or herself or another person registered and the share is an uncertificated share, he or she shall take any action the board may require (including without limitation the execution of any document and the giving of any instruction by means of a relevant system) to enable himself or herself or that person to be registered as the holder of the share. All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares apply to that notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the Shareholder and the death or bankruptcy of the Shareholder or other event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred.

Elections required 44. The board may at any time send a notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or herself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within 60 days, the board may after the expiry of that period withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Rights of persons entitled by transmission

45. A person becoming entitled by transmission to a share or EI shall, on production of any evidence as to his or her entitlement properly required by the board and subject to the requirements of Article 43, have the same rights in relation to the share or EI as he or she would have had if he or she were the holder of the share or EI, subject to Article 201. That person may give a discharge for all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share or EI, but he or she shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share or EI, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or participate in, any meeting of the Company or to receive notice of, or to attend or participate in, any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

New shares subject to these Articles

46. All shares created by increase of the Company's share capital, by consolidation, division or sub-division of its share capital or the conversion of stock into paid-up shares shall be subject to all the provisions of these Articles, including without limitation provisions relating to payment of calls, lien, forfeiture, transfer and transmission.

Fractions arising

47. Whenever any fractions arise as a result of a consolidation or sub-division of shares, the board may on behalf of the Shareholders deal with the fractions as it thinks fit. In particular, without limitation, the board may sell shares representing fractions to which any Shareholders would otherwise become entitled to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those Shareholders. Where the shares to be sold are held in certificated form the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. Where the shares to be sold are held in uncertificated form, the board may do all acts and things it considers necessary or expedient to effect the transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the buyer. The buyer shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys and his or her title to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in relation to the sale.

MANDATORY BID RULES

Any term which is used or defined in the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules and used in Articles 48 to 56 (inclusive) shall have the meaning as given in the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules, in each case as such term is interpreted in accordance with the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules and Dutch law. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of Articles 48 to 56 (inclusive) apply to the members (where shares are not part of a collective deposit or a book-entry deposit of shares) and to the EI Holders (where shares are part of a collective deposit or a book-entry deposit of shares), and the members and the EI Holders agree to and shall be bound to comply with them.

48. For so long as the UK City Code on Takeover and Mergers does not apply to the Company, the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules shall apply to the Company by virtue of their incorporation by reference into these Articles. For these purposes, the Company will apply and abide by the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules and each Shareholder agrees to apply and abide by the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules. The Company shall maintain an up-to-date (unofficial) translation of the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules on its website.

49. As a result of Article 48, any Shareholder that, alone or acting in concert with others, acquires direct or indirect predominant control of the Company shall be obliged (unless exempted under the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules) to (i) make an offer for all remaining shares (and depositary receipts) of the Company (a mandatory bid) and (ii) issue a public announcement of the same within thirty days as per the day of acquisition of direct or indirect predominant control (onverwijld) or sooner, in compliance and in accordance with the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules. Subject to Article 48, a mandatory bid required in accordance with these Articles and applying the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules shall be subject to supervision by the Dutch Financial Market Authority (Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten). If a Shareholder fails to comply with its obligation to make a mandatory bid for all remaining shares (and depositary receipts) of the Company in accordance with these Articles applying the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules, the Company may issue a public announcement that such Shareholder is required to make such mandatory bid (and each Shareholder irrevocably authorises the Company to do so).
50. Where the board has reason to believe that any Shareholder, alone or acting in concert with others, has obtained direct or indirect predominant control of the Company (unless exempted under the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules), then it may require the person(s) appearing to be interested in the shares of the Company to provide such information as the board considers appropriate.
51. If:
- (a) any Shareholder, alone or acting in concert, acquires direct or indirect predominant control of the Company (unless exempted under the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules); and
 - (b) that Shareholder fails to within thirty days as per the day of acquiring direct or indirect predominant control (i) immediately issue a public announcement of the same or (ii) make a mandatory bid in compliance with these Articles and the Dutch Mandatory Bid Rules (Mandatory Bid Default),
- then, automatically and without further notice to the Shareholder or any action of the board, for such time as such Mandatory Bid Default is continuing and has not been remedied:
- (c) the voting and dividend rights attaching to the relevant Shareholder's (and its concert parties) shares shall be suspended; and
 - (d) the relevant Shareholder (and its concert parties) shall be prohibited from participating (including voting) in any general meeting of the Company.
52. The Company and each Shareholder agrees to submit to arbitration in accordance with Article 242 (only) the matters referred to in article 5:73 of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht) (as it may be amended from time to time) as requiring reference to the Enterprise Chamber in matters relating to a 'Dutch public company (naamloze vennootschap) with seat in the Netherlands', being currently:

- (a) An application by the Company to order any Shareholder (and its concert parties) that has acquired direct or indirect predominant control of the Company and is in violation of its obligations under article 5:70 of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act (Wet of the financieel toezicht) as incorporated into these Articles by reference, to make a public tender offer in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act (Wet of the financieel toezicht) as incorporated into these Articles by reference.
- (b) An application by the Company for suspension of voting and/or dividend rights of the shares held by the relevant Shareholder (and its concert parties) for a defined period;
- (c) An application by the Company for a prohibition of the relevant Shareholder (and its concert parties) from participating (including voting) in any general meeting of the Company for a defined period; and/or
- (d) An application by the Company for a temporary transfer under administration (ten titel van beheer) of the shares of the relevant Shareholder (and its concert parties) to an appointed administrator, and each Shareholder agrees to be bound by and to comply with any such decision as the Special Arbitral Tribunal may give on any of these applications.

- 53. Upon first written request of any Shareholder or an entity as referred to in article 3:305a of the Dutch Civil Code, the Company shall be obliged to make any of the applications referred to in Article 52. Any such Shareholder or other entity referred to in article 3:305a of the Dutch Civil Code that so requires the Company to make any of the applications referred to in Article 52 shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its directors against any and all liabilities suffered or incurred by the Company and/or its directors in connection with complying with this Article 53.
- 54. The Company and each Shareholder agree that, should, for whatever reason the Special Arbitral Tribunal not be available to give a legally binding decision on the applications referred to in Article 52, the parties shall submit their dispute to the English courts [or any other court having jurisdiction over the relevant defendant(s)] and the English courts shall have the power to give the same relief. The Company and each Shareholder further agree that damages are not an adequate remedy in the event of any failure by a Shareholder to comply with any of the Mandatory Bid rules.
- 55. The board shall exercise its powers and take such actions as it thinks appropriate, acting in good faith and in a manner it believes to be in the best interest of Shareholders as a whole, to enforce and abide by any decision of the Special Arbitral Tribunal or the English courts. The board shall, in exercising its powers under these Articles, comply with the principle that all Shareholders that are in the same position shall be treated equally in respect of the rights attaching to their shares and otherwise in accordance with their duties under applicable law.
- 56. The board shall have no liability in respect of any exercise of any discretion it has in respect of the application of Articles 48 to 55 (inclusive) or in performing its obligations in relation to, or connection with, any mandatory bid required pursuant to Articles 48 to 55 (inclusive).

SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS

57. Articles 55(a) to 55(c) (inclusive) shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 2:107a of the Dutch Civil Code (as amended from time to time). In relation to any of the transactions set out in Article 58 (each a Significant Transaction), the Company shall:

- (a) comply with the terms of Articles 57 to 59 (inclusive);
- (b) obtain the prior approval of the Shareholders at a general meeting of the Company for such Significant Transaction in accordance with Article 58; and
- (c) ensure that any agreement effecting such Significant Transaction is conditional on such approval as set out in Article 58 being obtained, provided that if any Significant Transaction is required or directed by any regulatory authority with jurisdiction over the Company then the Company shall not be required to obtain the approval of the Shareholders in accordance with Article 58, and further provided that nothing in Articles 58 or 56 shall be construed to bind any Group Company to the extent that it constitutes an unlawful fetter on any statutory power or duty of such Group Company.

58. The Significant Transactions (and required Shareholder approval thresholds) are as follows:

- (a) the approval of at least 75 per cent of the Shareholders at a general meeting for any transaction that would result in an important change in the Group's identity or character (unless such transaction falls within Article 58(b) below, in which case only the voting threshold in Article 58(b) shall apply), including in any case:
 - (i) the transfer to a third party of the business of the Group or practically the entire business of the Group; or
 - (ii) the disposal by the Company or a Group Company of an interest in the capital of a company with a value of at least one-third of the Company's assets (in aggregate) according to the consolidated balance sheet with explanatory notes included in the last adopted annual accounts of the Company;
- (b) the approval of at least 50 per cent of the Shareholders at a general meeting for any merger by the Company with, or acquisition by the Company or a Group Company of an interest in the capital of, a company with a value of at least one-third of the Company's assets (in aggregate) according to the consolidated balance sheet with explanatory notes included in the last adopted annual accounts of the Company;
- (c) the approval of at least 75 per cent of the Shareholders at a general meeting of the Company for the entry into any material joint venture or partnership arrangement (for these purposes "material" means with a value of at least one-third of the Company's assets according to the consolidated balance sheet with explanatory notes included in the last adopted annual accounts of the Company); and

- (d) subject to the requirements of any applicable law or listing rules, the approval of at least 90 per cent of the Shareholders at a general meeting of the Company for the delisting of the Company (other than the delisting of the Company in connection with, or a result of, any public tender offer or other change of control transaction in relation to the Company, which shall include (without limitation) a takeover offer or scheme of arrangement).

- 59. The board shall ensure that the general meeting is provided with adequate information in relation to the relevant Significant Transaction.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

- 60. The Company is obliged to make a public announcement, in accordance with Article 64, in case of a material transaction between the Company and a Related Party of the Company if and when such transaction is not entered into in the ordinary course of business or under normal market terms and conditions.

- 61. For the purposes of Articles 60 to 67 (inclusive), a transaction qualifies as “material” if:

- (a) information on the transaction qualifies as inside information as set out in article 7(1) of Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse (market abuse regulation); and
- (b) it is entered into, or to be entered into, between the Company and a Related Party of the Company.

- 62. For purposes of the above definition of “material”, non-material transactions entered into between the Company and the same Related Party of the Company in the same financial year are aggregated (and can, as such, qualify as being “material” in aggregate).

- 63. If the material transaction between the Company and a Related Party of the Company is not in the ordinary course of business or not entered into on normal market terms, the transaction is subject to approval by the board (subject to the director conflict of interests provisions as set out in Articles 165 to 171 (inclusive)).

- 64. The public announcement, by way of a press release on the Company’s website, must be made at the moment when the transaction is entered into and must contain, as a minimum information about the nature of the relationship, the name of the Related Party as well as the date and the value of the transaction.

- 65. Articles 60 to 64 (inclusive) are also applicable to material transactions between a Related Party of the Company and a Group Company.

- 66. Articles 60 to 65 (inclusive) do not apply to any of the following transactions between the Company (or, as applicable, a Group Company) and a Related Party of the Company:

- (a) a transaction between the Company and a Group Company (or between Group Companies);
 - (b) a transaction between the Company or a Group Company and directors of the Company or a subsidiary regarding remuneration of directors of the Company or a subsidiary;
 - (c) a transaction entered into by the Company or a Group Company of the Company on the basis of measures to safeguard [Allfunds Banks'] stability, such measures as determined by the Bank of Spain or the European Central Bank; and
 - (d) a transaction between the Company and a Shareholder if all other Shareholders can participate on the same (or substantially the same) conditions and provided that equal treatment of Shareholders and the interest of the Company are safeguarded.
67. For transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business and under normal market terms and conditions, the board must establish an internal procedure to periodically assess whether the conditions to qualify as being in the ordinary course of business and under normal market terms and conditions have been met.

GENERAL MEETINGS

meetings

68. The board shall convene and the Company shall hold general meetings as annual general meetings in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

Class
meetings

69. All provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares, except that:
- (a) the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or, at any adjourned meeting of such holders, one holder present in person or by proxy, whatever the amount of his or her holding, who shall be deemed to constitute a meeting;
 - (b) any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll; and
 - (c) each holder of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by the holder.

For the purposes of this Article, where a person is present by proxy or proxies, the person is treated only as holding the shares in respect of which those proxies are authorised to exercise voting rights.

Convening

70. The board may call general meetings whenever and at such times as it shall determine. On the requisition of Shareholders pursuant to the provisions of the Act, the board shall promptly convene a general meeting in accordance with the requirements of the Act. If there are insufficient directors in the United Kingdom to call a general meeting any director of the Company may call a general meeting, but where no director is willing or able to do so, any two Shareholders of the Company may summon a meeting for the purpose of appointing one or more directors.

71. The board shall determine in relation to each general meeting the means of attendance at and participation in the meeting, including whether the persons entitled to attend and participate in the general meeting shall be enabled to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a physical place (or places, in accordance with Article 78) anywhere in the world determined by it, or by means of electronic facility or facilities determined by it in accordance with Article 79, or partly in one way and partly in another.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- Period of notice 72. An annual general meeting shall be called by at least 21 clear days' notice. Subject to the provisions of the Act, all other general meetings may be called by at least 14 clear days' notice.
- Recipients of notice 73. Subject to the provisions of the Act, to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be sent to every Shareholder and every director. The auditors are entitled to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meeting which any Shareholder is entitled to receive.
- Contents of notice: general 74. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the notice shall specify the time and date of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be dealt with.
- Contents of notice: additional requirements 75. In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall specify the meeting as such. In the case of a meeting to pass a special resolution, the notice shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.
- Determination of place of meeting 76. The notice shall specify the physical place or places at which the general meeting shall be held (wholly or partly) (and any satellite meeting place determined in accordance with Article 78 shall be identified as such in the notice).
- Meeting by means of electronic facility If the board determines that a general meeting shall be held partly by means of electronic facility or facilities, the notice shall specify the means, or all different means, of attendance and participation determined in accordance with Article 79 and any access, identification and security arrangements determined in accordance with Article 86.
- Article 74 arrangements 77. The notice shall specify any arrangements made for the purpose of Article 81 (making clear that participation in those arrangements will not amount to attendance at the meeting to which the notice relates).
- General meeting at more than one place 78. The board may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend and participate in a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a satellite meeting place anywhere in the world. The Shareholders present in person or by proxy at satellite meeting places shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chair of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that Shareholders attending at all the meeting places are able to:

- (a) participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
- (b) hear and see all persons who speak (whether by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise) in the principal meeting place and any satellite meeting place; and
- (c) be heard and seen by all other persons so present in the same way.

The chair of the general meeting shall be present at, and the meeting shall be deemed to take place at, the principal meeting place.

General meeting by means of electronic facility

79. The board may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend and participate in a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation by means of electronic facility or facilities and determine the means, or all different means, of attendance and participation used in relation to a general meeting. The Shareholders present in person or by proxy by means of electronic facility or facilities shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to participate in, the general meeting in question. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chair of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that Shareholders attending the meeting by all means (including by means of electronic facility or facilities) are able to:

- (a) participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
- (b) hear all persons who speak at the meeting; and
- (c) be heard by all other persons present at the meeting.

A Shareholder seeking to be present in person or by proxy at a general meeting by means of electronic facility or facilities is responsible for ensuring they have access to and can use the facility or facilities. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid notwithstanding the inability of the Shareholder to gain access to or use the facility or facilities, or the loss of access to or use of the facility or facilities during the meeting.

Interruption or adjournment where facilities inadequate

80. If it appears to the chair of the general meeting that:

- (a) the facilities at the principal meeting place or any satellite meeting place have become inadequate for the purposes referred to in Article 78; or
- (b) an electronic facility has become inadequate for the purposes referred to in Article 79, then the chair may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the general meeting. All business conducted at that general meeting up to the time of that adjournment shall be valid. The provisions of Article 92 shall apply to that adjournment.

Other arrangements for viewing and hearing proceedings

81. The board may make arrangements for persons entitled to attend a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting to be able to view and hear the proceedings of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting and to speak at the meeting (whether by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise) by attending at a venue anywhere in the world not being a satellite meeting place.

Those attending at any such venue shall not be regarded as present at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting and shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting at or from that venue. The inability for any reason of any Shareholder present in person or by proxy at such a venue to view or hear all or any of the proceedings of the meeting or to speak at the meeting shall not in any way affect the validity of the proceedings of the meeting.

Controlling level of attendance

82. The board may from time to time make any arrangements for controlling the level of attendance at any venue for which arrangements have been made pursuant to Article 81 (including without limitation the issue of tickets or the imposition of some other means of selection) it in its absolute discretion considers appropriate, and may from time to time change those arrangements. If a Shareholder, pursuant to those arrangements, is not entitled to attend in person or by proxy at a particular venue, he or she shall be entitled to attend in person or by proxy at any other venue for which arrangements have been made pursuant to Article 81. The entitlement of any Shareholder to be present at such venue in person or by proxy shall be subject to any such arrangement then in force and stated by the notice of meeting or adjourned meeting to apply to the meeting.

Change in time and/or place of meeting

83. If, after the sending of notice of a general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the board decides that it is impracticable or unreasonable, for a reason beyond its control, to hold the meeting at a declared place (including a satellite meeting place to which Article 78 applies), and/or by means of a declared electronic facility, and/or at the declared time, it may change any place and/or electronic facility and/or postpone the time at which the meeting is to be held. If such a decision is made, the board may then change again any place and/or electronic facility and/or postpone the time if it decides that it is reasonable to do so. In any case:
- (a) no new notice of the meeting need be sent, but the board shall, if practicable, advertise the date and time of the meeting, and the means of attendance and participation (including any place and/or electronic facility) for the meeting, in at least two newspapers having a national circulation and shall make arrangements for notices of the change of place or places and/or electronic facility or facilities and/or postponement to appear at the original place or places and/or on the original electronic facility or facilities, in each case at the original time; and
 - (b) proxy appointment in relation to the meeting may, if by means of a document in hard copy form, be delivered to the office or to such other place within the United Kingdom as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 122(a) or, if in electronic form, be received at the address (if any) specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 122(b), at any time not less than 48 hours before the postponed time appointed for holding the meeting provided that the board may specify, in any case, that in calculating the period of 48 hours, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Accidental omission to send notice etc.

84. The accidental omission to send a notice of a meeting or resolution, or to send any notification where required by the Act or these Articles in relation to the publication of a notice of meeting on a website, or to send a form of proxy where required by the Act or these Articles, to any person entitled to receive it, or the non-receipt for any reason of any such notice, resolution or notification or form of proxy by that person whether or not the Company is aware of such omission or non-receipt, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Security at physical meetings

85. The board (and, at a general meeting, the chair) may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction it or he or she considers appropriate to ensure the security of a general meeting held at a physical place including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity to be produced by those attending the meeting, the searching of their personal property and the restriction of items that may be taken into the meeting place. The board and, at any general meeting, the chair are entitled to refuse entry to a person who refuses to comply with these arrangements, requirements or restrictions.

Security at electronic meetings

86. If a general meeting is held partly by means of electronic facility or facilities, the board (and, at a general meeting, the chair) may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction that is:
- (a) necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of the electronic communication; and
 - (b) proportionate to the achievement of those objectives.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

87. No business shall be dealt with at any general meeting unless a quorum is present, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the choice or appointment of a chair, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, two qualifying persons present at a meeting and entitled to vote on the business to be dealt with are a quorum, unless:
- (a) each is a qualifying person only because he or she is authorised under the Act to act as a representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, and they are representatives of the same corporation; or
 - (b) each is a qualifying person only because he or she is appointed as proxy of a Shareholder in relation to the meeting, and they are proxies of the same Shareholder.

For the purposes of this Article a ‘qualifying person’ means (i) an individual who is a Shareholder, (ii) a person authorised under the Act to act as a representative of the corporation in relation to the meeting, or (iii) a person appointed as proxy of a Shareholder in relation to the meeting.

If quorum not present

88. If such a quorum is not present within five minutes (or such longer time not exceeding 30 minutes as the chair of the meeting may decide to wait) from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, and in any other case shall stand adjourned to such time and with such means of attendance and participation

(including at such place and/or by means of such electronic facility) as the chair of the meeting may, subject to the provisions of the Act, determine. The adjourned meeting shall be dissolved if a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting.

- Chair 89. The chair, if any, of the board or, in his or her absence, any deputy chair of the Company or, in his or her absence, some other director nominated by the board, shall preside as chair of the meeting. If neither the chair, deputy chair nor such other director (if any) is present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is not willing to act as chair, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chair. If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall be chair. If no director is willing to act as chair, or if no director is present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Shareholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall choose a Shareholder or a proxy of a Shareholder or a person authorised to act as a representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting to be chair.
- Directors entitled to speak 90. A director shall, notwithstanding that he or she is not a Shareholder, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares.
- Adjournment: chair's powers 91. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time. In addition (and without prejudice to the chair's power to adjourn a meeting conferred by Article 80), the chair may adjourn the meeting without such consent, if it appears to him or her that it would facilitate the conduct of the business of the meeting to do so.
- Adjournment: procedures 92. Any such adjournment may, subject to the provisions of the Act, be for such time and with such means of attendance and participation (including at such place and/or by means of such electronic facility) as the chair may in his or her absolute discretion determine, notwithstanding that by reason of such adjournment some Shareholders may be unable to attend or participate in the adjourned meeting. Any such Shareholder may nevertheless appoint a proxy for the adjourned meeting either in accordance with Article 122 or by means of a document in hard copy form which, if delivered at the meeting which is adjourned to the chair or the secretary or any director, shall be valid even though it is given at less notice than would otherwise be required by Article 122(a). When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or for an indefinite period, notice shall be sent at least seven clear days before the date of the adjourned meeting specifying the time of, and means, or all different means, of attendance and participation (including any place and/or electronic facility) for, the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to send any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be dealt with at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be dealt with at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been dealt with at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- Amendments to resolutions 93. If an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but is in good faith ruled out of order by the chair, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. With the consent of the chair, an amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer before it is voted on. No amendment to a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution may be considered or voted on (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error). No amendment to a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution may be considered or voted on (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) unless either:

- (a) at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the ordinary resolution is to be considered (which, if the board so specifies, shall be calculated taking no account of any part of a day that is not a working day), notice of the terms of the amendment and the intention to move it has been delivered in hard copy form to the office or to such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or received in electronic form at such address (if any) for the time being specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or
- (b) the chair in his or her absolute discretion decides that the amendment may be considered and voted on.

94. A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting held partly by means of electronic facility or facilities shall, unless the chair of the meeting determines that it shall (subject to the remainder of this Article) be decided on a show of hands, be decided on a poll. Subject thereto, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, a vote on the show of hands, or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded by:

- (a) the chair of the meeting; or
- (b) (except on the election of the chair of the meeting or on a question of adjournment) at least three Shareholders present in person or by proxy having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (c) any Shareholder or Shareholders present in person or by proxy representing not less than 10 per cent of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares held as treasury shares); or
- (d) any Shareholder or Shareholders present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10 per cent of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding any shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution which are held as treasury shares).

The appointment of a proxy to vote on a matter at a meeting authorises the proxy to demand, or join in demanding, a poll on that matter. In applying the provisions of this Article, a demand by a proxy counts (i) for the purposes of paragraph (b) of this Article, as a demand by the Shareholder, (ii) for the purposes of paragraph (c) of this Article, as a demand by a Shareholder representing the voting rights that the proxy is authorised to exercise, and (iii) for the purposes of paragraph (d) of this Article, as a demand by a Shareholder holding the shares to which those rights are attached.

- Declaration of result 95. Unless a poll is duly demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn before the poll is taken) a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- Withdrawal of demand for poll 96. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chair. A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If the demand for a poll is withdrawn, the chair or any other Shareholder entitled may demand a poll.
- Conduct of poll 97. Subject to Article 98, a poll shall be taken as the chair directs and he or she may, and shall if required by the meeting, appoint scrutineers (who need not be Shareholders) and fix a time and means for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- When poll to be taken 98. A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either at the meeting or at such time and by such means of attendance and participation (including at such place and/or by means of such electronic facility) as the chair directs, not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- Notice of poll 99. No notice need be sent of a poll not taken at the meeting at which it is demanded if the time at and means by which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting. In any other case notice shall be sent at least seven clear days before the taking of the poll specifying the time at and means by which the poll is to be taken.
- Effectiveness of special resolutions 100. Where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the Company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

VOTES OF SHAREHOLDERS

- Right to vote on a show of hands 101. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands:
- (a) every Shareholder who is present in person shall have one vote;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (c) of this Article, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more Shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote;
 - (c) a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if:
 - (i) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one Shareholder entitled to vote on the resolution, and

- (ii) the proxy has been instructed by one or more of those Shareholders to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those Shareholders to vote against it.

Right to vote on a poll

- 102. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a vote on a resolution on a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which the person is the holder.
- 103. In the case of more than one vote being cast in respect of the same share in accordance with Article 101 or 102 then only the vote of the member shall be counted by the Company.

Votes of joint holders

- 104. In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.

Member under incapacity

- 105. A Shareholder in respect of whom an order has been made by a court or official having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his or her receiver, curator bonis or other person authorised for that purpose appointed by that court or official. That receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a show of hands or on a poll, vote by proxy. The right to vote shall be exercisable only if evidence satisfactory to the board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote has been delivered to the office, or another place specified in accordance with these Articles for the delivery of proxy appointments, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised provided that the Company may specify, in any case, that in calculating the period of 48 hours, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Calls in arrears

- 106. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at a separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, in respect of any share held by the Shareholder unless all moneys presently payable by the Shareholder in respect of that share have been paid.

Section 793 of the Act: restrictions if in default

- 107. If at any time the board is satisfied that any Shareholder, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares held by such Shareholder, has been duly served with a notice under section 793 of the Act (a section 793 notice) and is in default for the prescribed period in supplying to the Company the information thereby required, or, in purported compliance with such a notice, has made a statement which is false or inadequate in a material particular, then the board may, in its absolute discretion at any time thereafter by notice (a direction notice) to such Shareholder direct that:
 - (a) in respect of the shares in relation to which the default occurred (the default shares, which expression includes any shares issued after the date of the section 793 notice in respect of those shares) the Shareholder shall not be entitled to attend or vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting or at a separate meeting of the holders of that class of shares or on a poll; and

- (b) where the default shares represent at least ¼ of one per cent in nominal value of the issued shares of their class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares), the direction notice may additionally direct that in respect of the default shares:
 - (i) no payment shall be made by way of dividend and no share shall be allotted pursuant to Article 199;
 - (ii) no transfer of any default share shall be registered unless:
 - (A) the Shareholder is not in default as regards supplying the information requested and the transfer when presented for registration is accompanied by a certificate by the Shareholder in such form as the board may in its absolute discretion require to the effect that after due and careful enquiry the Shareholder is satisfied that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer; or
 - (B) the transfer is an approved transfer; or
 - (C) registration of the transfer is required by applicable law.

Copy of notice to interested persons

108. The Company shall send the direction notice to each other person appearing to be interested in the default shares, but the failure or omission by the Company to do so shall not invalidate such notice.

When restrictions cease to have effect

109. Any direction notice shall cease to have effect not more than seven days after the earlier of receipt by the Company of:

- (a) a notice of an approved transfer, but only in relation to the shares transferred; or
- (b) all the information required by the relevant section 793 notice, in a form satisfactory to the board.

Board may cancel restrictions of uncertificated shares Supplement any provisions

110. The board may at any time send a notice cancelling a direction notice.

111. The Company may exercise any of its powers under Article 8 in respect of any default share that is held in uncertificated form.

112. For the purposes of this Article and Articles 107, 108, 109, 110 and 111:

- (a) a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any shares if the Shareholder holding such shares has sent to the Company a notification under section 793 of the Act which either (i) names such person as being so interested or (ii) fails to establish the identities of all those interested in the shares, and (after taking into account the said notification and any other relevant section 793 notification) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the shares;
- (b) the prescribed period is 14 days from the date of service of the section 793 notice; and

- (c) a transfer of shares is an approved transfer if:
 - (i) it is a transfer of shares pursuant to an acceptance of a takeover offer (within the meaning of section 974 of the Act); or
 - (ii) the board is satisfied that the transfer is made pursuant to a sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the shares the subject of the transfer to a party unconnected with the Shareholder and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares; or
 - (iii) the transfer results from a sale made through a recognised investment exchange as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the Company's shares are normally traded.

Section 794 of the Act 113. Nothing contained in Article 107, 108, 109, 110, 111 or 112 limits the power of the Company under section 794 of the Act.

Errors in voting 114. If any votes are counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it is pointed out at the same meeting, or at any adjournment of the meeting, and, in the opinion of the chair, it is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the result of the voting.

Objection to voting 115. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is tendered. Every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid and every vote not counted which ought to have been counted shall be disregarded. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Voting: additional provisions 116. On a poll, a Shareholder entitled to more than one vote need not, if the Shareholder votes, use all the Shareholder's votes or cast all the votes the Shareholder uses in the same way.

PROXIES AND CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

Appointment of proxy: form 117. The appointment of a proxy shall be made in writing and shall be in any usual form or in any other form which the board may approve. Subject thereto, the appointment of a proxy may be:

- (a) in hard copy form; or
- (b) in electronic form, to the electronic address provided by the Company for this purpose.

Execution of proxy 118. The appointment of a proxy, whether made in hard copy form or in electronic form, shall be executed in such manner as may be approved by or on behalf of the Company from time to time. Subject thereto, the appointment of a proxy shall be executed by the appointor or any person duly authorised by the appointor or, if the appointor is a corporation, executed by a duly authorised person or under its common seal or in any other manner authorised by its constitution.

Proxies: other
provisions

119. The board may, if it thinks fit, but subject to the provisions of the Act, at the Company's expense send hard copy forms of proxy for use at the meeting and issue invitations in electronic form to appoint a proxy in relation to the meeting in such form as may be approved by the board. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting in person at the meeting or poll concerned. A Shareholder may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion, provided that each such proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that Shareholder.
120. A member holding shares as nominee for one or more Shareholders can appoint more than one person to be its proxy. Any proxy appointed in such manner shall have the same rights (and be subject to the same restrictions) as a proxy appointed by any other member.
121. It is acknowledged and agreed that an EI Holder is entitled to exercise the right to vote attached to the share in respect of which the EI relates. Subject and without prejudice to the Euroclear Rules, if in any circumstances other than those provided for in these Articles any question shall arise as to whether any person has been validly appointed to vote (or exercise any other right) in respect of a holding of EIs or as to the number of EIs in respect of which he is entitled to do so, then:
- (a) if such question arises at or in relation to a general meeting it shall be determined by the chairman of the meeting or in such other manner as may have been prescribed by regulations or procedures made or established by the board; and
 - (b) if it arises in any other circumstances it shall be determined by the board and any such determination if made in good faith shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons interested.

Delivery/rec eipt of proxy

122. Without prejudice to Article 83(b) or to the second sentence of Article 92, the appointment of a proxy shall:
- (a) if in hard copy form, be delivered by hand or by post to the office or such other place within the United Kingdom and by such time as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose:
 - (i) in the notice convening the meeting; or
 - (ii) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting;provided that:
 - (iii) the time so specified may not be earlier than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 83) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; and
 - (iv) if no time is specified, the appointment of a proxy shall be delivered not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 83) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

- (b) if in electronic form, be received at any address to which the appointment of a proxy may be sent by electronic means pursuant to a provision of the Act or to any other address and by such time as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for the purpose of receiving the appointment of a proxy in electronic form:
 - (i) in the notice convening the meeting; or
 - (ii) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting; or
 - (iii) in any invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting; or
 - (iv) on a website that is maintained by or on behalf of the Company and identifies the Company;

provided that:

- (v) the time so specified may not be earlier than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 83) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; and
 - (vi) if no time is specified, the appointment of a proxy shall be received not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (or any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting pursuant to Article 83) at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or
- (c) in either case, where a poll is taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be delivered or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
 - (d) if in hard copy form, where a poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chair or to the secretary or to any director.

In calculating the periods mentioned in this Article, the board may specify, in any case, that no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Authenticat
ion of proxy appointmen t not made by holder

- 123. Subject to the provisions of the Act, where the appointment of a proxy is expressed to have been or purports to have been made, sent or supplied by a person on behalf of the holder of a share:
 - (a) the Company may treat the appointment as sufficient evidence of the authority of that person to make, send or supply the appointment on behalf of that holder; and

- (b) that holder shall, if requested by or on behalf of the Company at any time, send or procure the sending of reasonable evidence of the authority under which the appointment has been made, sent or supplied (which may include a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board), to such address and by such time as may be specified in the request and, if the request is not complied with in any respect, the appointment may be treated as invalid.

Validity of proxy appointment

- 124. A proxy appointment which is not delivered or received in accordance with Article ~~122~~ shall be invalid. When two or more valid proxy appointments are delivered or received in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, the one that was last delivered or received shall be treated as replacing or revoking the others as regards that share, provided that if the Company determines that it has insufficient evidence to decide whether or not a proxy appointment is in respect of the same share, it shall be entitled to determine which proxy appointment (if any) is to be treated as valid. Subject to the Act, the Company may determine at its discretion when a proxy appointment shall be treated as delivered or received for the purposes of these Articles.

Rights of proxy

- 125. A proxy appointment shall be deemed to entitle the proxy to exercise all or any of the appointing Shareholder's rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the Company in respect of the shares to which the proxy appointment relates. The proxy appointment shall, unless it provides to the contrary, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting as well as for the meeting to which it relates.
- 126. The Company shall not be required to check that a proxy or corporate representative votes in accordance with any instructions given by the Shareholder by whom he or she is appointed. Any failure to vote as instructed shall not invalidate the proceedings on the resolution.

Corporate representatives

- 127. Any corporation which is a Shareholder (in this Article the grantor) may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative or representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. A director, the secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require all or any of such persons to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting the person to exercise his or her powers. Such person is entitled to exercise (on behalf of the grantor) the same powers as the grantor could exercise if it were an individual Shareholder. Where a grantor authorises more than one person:
 - (a) on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting of the Company, each authorised person has the same voting rights as the grantor would be entitled to; and
 - (b) where paragraph (a) of this Article does not apply and more than one authorised person purport to exercise a power in respect of the same shares:
 - (i) if they purport to exercise the power in the same way as each other, the power is treated as exercised in that way; and
 - (ii) if they do not purport to exercise the power in the same way as each other, the power is treated as not exercised.

Revocation of authority

128. The termination of the authority of a person to act as a proxy or duly authorised representative of a corporation does not affect:
- (a) whether he or she counts in deciding whether there is a quorum at a meeting;
 - (b) the validity of anything he or she does as chair of a meeting;
 - (c) the validity of a poll he or she demands at a meeting; or
 - (d) the validity of a vote he or she gives at a meeting, unless notice of the termination was either delivered or received as mentioned in the following sentence at least 24 hours before the start of the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll. Such notice of termination shall be either by means of a document in hard copy form delivered to the office or to such other place within the United Kingdom as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 122(a) or in electronic form received at the address specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 122(b), regardless of whether any relevant proxy appointment was effected in hard copy form or in electronic form.

NUMBER AND RESIDENCY OF DIRECTORS

Limits on number of directors

129. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall be not less than 5 nor more than 16 in number.
130. The board shall manage its affairs (including succession planning) to ensure that a majority of the directors are resident outside of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

Number of directors to retire

131. Each executive director shall retire from office at the annual general meeting that is held in the fourth calendar year after his or her appointment and may be reappointed for any number of subsequent terms of each up to four years.
132. Each non-executive director shall retire from office at the annual general meeting that is held in the fourth calendar year after his or her first term of appointment and may be reappointed as follows:
- (a) a second term of up to four years; and
 - (b) two subsequent terms of each up to two years.

When director deemed to be re-appointed

133. If the Company does not fill the vacancy at the meeting at which a director retires, the retiring director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

Eligibility for election	134.	No person other than a retiring director shall be appointed a director at any general meeting unless: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) he or she is recommended by the board; or (b) not less than seven nor more than 42 days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice by a Shareholder qualified to vote at the meeting (not being the person to be proposed) has been received by the Company of the intention to propose that person for appointment stating the particulars which would, if he or she were so appointed, be required to be included in the Company's register of directors, together with notice by that person of his or her willingness to be appointed.
Provisions if insufficient directors appointed	135.	If: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) any resolution or resolutions for the appointment or re-appointment of the persons eligible for appointment or re-appointment as directors are put to the annual general meeting and lost, and (b) at the end of that meeting the number of directors is fewer than any minimum number of directors required under Article 129, all retiring directors who stood for re-appointment at that meeting (the Retiring Directors) shall be deemed to have been re-appointed as directors and shall remain in office, but the Retiring Directors may only: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (c) act for the purpose of filling vacancies and convening general meetings of the Company; and (d) perform such duties as are appropriate to maintain the Company as a going concern and to comply with the Company's legal and regulatory obligations, but not for any other purpose.
Provisions for general meeting	136.	The Retiring Directors shall convene a general meeting as soon as reasonably practicable following the annual general meeting referred to in Article 135 , and they shall retire from office at that meeting. If at the end of any meeting convened under this Article the number of directors is fewer than any minimum number of directors required under Article 129 , the provisions of Article 135 and this Article shall also apply to that meeting.
Separate resolutions on appointment	137.	Except as otherwise authorised by the Act, a motion for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall not be made unless a resolution that it should be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.
Additional powers of the Company	138.	Subject as aforesaid, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director. The appointment of a person to fill a vacancy or as an additional director shall take effect from the end of the meeting.

Appointment by board 139. The board may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director and in either case whether or not for a fixed term provided that the appointment does not cause the number of directors to exceed the number, if any, fixed by or in accordance with these Articles as the maximum number of directors. Any person appointed as a director pursuant to this Article 139 shall retire at the first annual general meeting after their appointment (and, if applicable, if reappointed at such annual general meeting the term of such reappointment shall be deemed their first term for the purposes of Article 132).

Position of retiring directors 140. A director who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he or she is not re-appointed, he or she shall, unless Article 135 applies, retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his or her place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

No share qualification 141. A director shall not be required to hold any shares by way of qualification.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

Power to appoint alternates 142. Any director (other than an alternate director), subject to Article 182, may appoint any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the board and willing to act, to be an alternate director and may remove from office an alternate director so appointed.

Alternates entitled to receive notice 143. An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the board and of all meetings of committees of the board of which his or her appointor is a member, to attend and vote at any such meeting at which his or her appointor is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his or her appointor (except as regards power to appoint an alternate) as a director in his or her absence.

Alternates representing more than one director 144. A director or any other person may act as alternate director to represent more than one director, and an alternate director shall be entitled at meetings of the board or any committee of the board to one vote for every director whom he or she represents (and who is not present) in addition to his or her own vote (if any) as a director, but he or she shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Expenses and remuneration of alternates 145. An alternate director may be repaid by the Company such expenses as might properly have been repaid to him or her if he or she had been a director but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company in respect of services as an alternate director except such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his or her appointor as such appointor may by notice to the Company from time to time direct. An alternate director shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company to the same extent as if he or she were a director.

Termination of appointment 146. An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director:

- (a) if his or her appointor ceases to be a director; but, if a director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to have been re-appointed at the meeting at which he or she retires, any appointment of an alternate director made by him or her which was in force immediately prior to his or her retirement shall continue after his or her re-appointment; or

- (b) on the happening of any event which, if he or she were a director, would cause him or her to vacate his or her office as director; or
- (c) if he or she resigns his or her office by notice to the Company.

Method of appointment and revocation

147. Any appointment or removal of an alternate director shall be by notice to the Company by the director making or revoking the appointment and shall take effect in accordance with the terms of the notice (subject to any approval required by Article 142) on receipt of such notice by the Company which shall be in hard copy form or in electronic form sent to such address (if any) for the time being specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose.

Alternate not an agent of appointor

148. Except as otherwise expressly provided in these Articles, an alternate director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a director. Accordingly, except where the context otherwise requires, a reference to a director shall be deemed to include a reference to an alternate director. An alternate director shall alone be responsible for his or her own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of his or her appointor.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

Business to be managed by board

149. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the board which may pay all expenses incurred in forming and registering the Company and may exercise all the powers of the Company, including without limitation the power to dispose of all or any part of the undertaking of the Company. No alteration of these Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the board by these Articles. A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.

Exercise by Company of voting rights

150. The board may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any body corporate held or owned by the Company in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including without limitation the exercise of that power in favour of any resolution appointing its members or any of them directors of such body corporate, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors of such body corporate).

DELEGATION OF POWERS OF THE BOARD

Committees of the board

151. The board may delegate any of its powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. The board may also delegate to any director holding any executive office such of its powers as the board considers desirable to be exercised by him or her. Any such delegation shall, in the absence of express provision to the contrary in the terms of delegation, be deemed to include authority to sub-delegate to one or more directors (whether or not acting as a committee) or to any employee or agent of the Company all or any of the powers delegated and may be made subject to such conditions as the board may specify, and may be revoked or altered.

Subject to any conditions imposed by the board, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by these Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

Local boards etc.

152. The board may establish local or divisional boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be members of the local or divisional boards, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration. The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in or exercisable by the board, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of any local or divisional board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies. Any appointment or delegation made pursuant to this Article may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the board may decide. The board may remove any person so appointed and may revoke or vary the delegation but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of the revocation or variation shall be affected by it.

Agents

153. The board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes, with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in the board) and on such conditions as the board determines, including without limitation authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his or her powers, authorities and discretions, and may revoke or vary such delegation.

Offices including title 'director'

154. The board may appoint any person to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word 'director' or attach to any existing office or employment with the Company such a designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of any such designation or title. The inclusion of the word 'director' in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that the holder is a director of the Company, and the holder shall not thereby be empowered in any respect to act as, or be deemed to be, a director of the Company for any of the purposes of these Articles.

BORROWING POWERS

155. The board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to guarantee, to indemnify, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property, assets (present and future) and uncalled capital, and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

Disqualification as a director

156. A person ceases to be a director as soon as:
- (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a director by law;
 - (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
 - (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
 - (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

- (e) notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning or retiring from office, and such resignation or retirement has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- (f) that person has been absent for more than six consecutive months without permission of the board from meetings of the board held during that period and his or her alternate director (if any) has not attended in his or her place during that period and the board resolves that his or her office be vacated; or
- (g) that person receives notice signed by not less than three quarters of the other directors stating that that person should cease to be a director. In calculating the number of directors who are required to give such notice to the director, (i) an alternate director appointed by him or her acting in his or her capacity as such shall be excluded; and (ii) a director and any alternate director appointed by him or her and acting in his or her capacity as such shall constitute a single director for this purpose, so that notice by either shall be sufficient.

Power of Company to remove director

157. The Company may, without prejudice to the provisions of the Act, by ordinary resolution remove any director from office (notwithstanding any provision of these Articles or of any agreement between the Company and such director, but without prejudice to any claim he or she may have for damages for breach of any such agreement). No special notice need be given of any resolution to remove a director in accordance with this Article and no director proposed to be removed in accordance with this Article has any special right to protest against his or her removal. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, appoint another person in place of a director removed from office in accordance with this Article. In default of such appointment the vacancy arising on the removal of a director from office may be filled as a casual vacancy.

NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Arrangements with non-executive directors

158. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the board may enter into, vary and terminate an agreement or arrangement with any director who does not hold executive office for the provision of his or her services to the Company. Subject to Article 159 and 160, any such agreement or arrangement may be made on such terms as the board determines.

Ordinary remuneration

159. Each director who does not hold executive office shall be paid a fee for his or her services (which shall be deemed to accrue from day to day) at such rate as may from time to time be determined by the board.

Additional remuneration for special services

160. Any director who does not hold executive office and who performs special services which in the opinion of the board are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director, may (without prejudice to the provisions of Article 159) be paid such extra remuneration by way of additional fee, salary, commission or otherwise as the board may determine.

DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

Directors may be paid expenses

161. The directors may be paid all travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the board or committees of the board, general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Appointment to executive office 162. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the board may appoint one or more of its body to be the holder of any executive office (except that of auditor) in the Company and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any such director for his or her employment by the Company or for the provision by him or her of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made on such terms, including without limitation terms as to remuneration, as the board determines. The board may revoke or vary any such appointment but without prejudice to any rights or claims which the person whose appointment is revoked or varied may have against the Company because of the revocation or variation.

Termination of appointment to executive office 163. Any appointment of a director to an executive office shall terminate if he or she ceases to be a director but without prejudice to any rights or claims which he or she may have against the Company by reason of such cessation. A director appointed to an executive office shall not cease to be a director merely because his or her appointment to such executive office terminates.

Emoluments to be determined by the board 164. The emoluments of any director holding executive office for his or her services as such shall be determined by the board, and may be of any description, including without limitation admission to, or continuance of, membership of any scheme (including any share acquisition scheme) or fund instituted or established or financed or contributed to by the Company for the provision of pensions, life assurance or other benefits for employees or their dependants, or the payment of a pension or other benefits to the director or his or her dependants on or after retirement or death, apart from membership of any such scheme or fund.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

Authorisation under s175 of the Act 165. For the purposes of section 175 of the Act, the board may authorise any matter proposed to it in accordance with these Articles which would, if not so authorised, involve a breach of duty by a director under that section, including any matter which relates to a situation in which a director has, or can have, an interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company. Any such authorisation will be effective only if:

- (a) any requirement as to quorum at the board meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director (a conflicted director); and
- (b) the matter was agreed to without any conflicted director voting or would have been agreed to if the vote of any conflicting director had not been counted.

The board may (whether at the time of the giving of the authorisation or subsequently) make any such authorisation subject to any limits or conditions it expressly imposes but such authorisation is otherwise given to the fullest extent permitted. The board may vary or terminate any such authorisation at any time.

For the purposes of this Article, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests.

Director may contract with the Company and hold other offices etc

166. Provided that he or she has disclosed to the board the nature and extent of his or her interest (unless the circumstances referred to in section 177(5) or section 177(6) of the Act apply, in which case no such disclosure is required) a director notwithstanding his or her office:
- (a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;
 - (b) may act by himself or herself or his or her firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and the director or his or her firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he or she were not a director; and
 - (c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate:
 - (i) in which the Company is (directly or indirectly) interested as shareholder or otherwise; or
 - (ii) with which he or she has such a relationship at the request or direction of the Company.

Remuneration, benefits etc.

167. A director shall not, by reason of his or her office, be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate:
- (a) the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been approved by the board pursuant to Article 165 (subject, in any such case, to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject); or
 - (b) which he or she is permitted to hold or enter into by virtue of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of Article 166;

nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his or her duty under section 176 of the Act.

Notification of interests

168. Any disclosure required by Article 166 may be made at a meeting of the board, by notice in writing or by general notice or otherwise in accordance with section 177 of the Act.

Duty of confidentiality to another person

169. A director shall be under no duty to the Company with respect to any information which he or she obtains or has obtained otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he or she owes a duty of confidentiality to another person. However, to the extent that his or her relationship with that other person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, this Article applies only if the existence of that relationship has been approved by the board pursuant to Article 165. In particular, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he or she owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act because he or she fails:

- (a) to disclose any such information to the board or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; and/or
- (b) to use or apply any such information in performing his or her duties as a director of the Company.

Consequences of authorisation

170. Where the existence of a director's relationship with another person has been approved by the board pursuant to Article 165 and his or her relationship with that person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he or she owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act because he or she:

- (a) absents himself or herself from meetings of the board at which any matter relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest will or may be discussed or from the discussion of any such matter at a meeting or otherwise; and/or
- (b) makes arrangements not to receive documents and information relating to any matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest sent or supplied by the Company and/or for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser,
- (c) for so long as he or she reasonably believes such conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest subsists.

Without prejudice to equitable principles or rule of law

171. The provisions of Article 169, and 170, are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse the director from:

- (a) disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under these Articles; or
- (b) attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents and information as referred to in Article 170, in circumstances where such attendance or receiving such documents and information would otherwise be required under these Articles.

GRATUITIES, PENSIONS AND INSURANCE

Gratuities and pensions

172. The board may (by establishment of, or maintenance of, schemes or otherwise) provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities or pensions or by insurance or otherwise, for any past or present director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings or any body corporate associated with, or any business acquired by, any of them, and for any member of his or her family (including a spouse, a civil partner, a former spouse and a former civil partner) or any person who is or was dependent on him or her, and may (as well before as after he or she ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

Insurance

173. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 241, the board may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for or for the benefit of any person who is or was:
- (a) a director, officer or employee of the Company, or any body which is or was the holding company or subsidiary undertaking of the Company, or in which the Company or such holding company or subsidiary undertaking has or had any interest (whether direct or indirect) or with which the Company or such holding company or subsidiary undertaking is or was in any way allied or associated; or
 - (b) a trustee of any pension fund in which employees of the Company or any other body referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article are or have been interested,
 - (c) including without limitation insurance against any liability incurred by such person in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution or discharge of his or her duties or in the exercise or purported exercise of his or her powers or otherwise in relation to his or her duties, powers or offices in relation to the relevant body or fund.

Directors not liable to account

174. No director or former director shall be accountable to the Company or the Shareholders for any benefit provided pursuant to these Articles. The receipt of any such benefit shall not disqualify any person from being or becoming a director of the Company.

Section 247 of the Act

175. The board may make provision for the benefit of any persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries other than a director or former director or shadow director in connection with the cessation or the transfer of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or any subsidiary. Any such provision shall be made by a resolution of the board in accordance with section 247 of the Act.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

Convening meetings

176. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the board may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the board by giving notice of the meeting to each director. The chair shall procure that each director is sent (i) reasonable advance notice of each meeting of the board or relevant committee thereof of which the relevant director is a member and an agenda of the business to be transacted at such meeting (together with all papers circulated or presented to it) (where such notice shall be at least 24 hours in an emergency situation (as determined by the chair (acting reasonably)) and at least 72 hours in any other situation), provided that this notice requirement may be waived with the unanimous consent of the directors in a meeting in which all directors are represented; and (ii) as soon as practicable after each such meeting of the board or of a committee thereof, a copy of the minutes thereof. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote. Any director may waive notice of a meeting and any such waiver may be retrospective. Any notice pursuant to this Article need not be in writing if the board so determines and any such determination may be retrospective.

Quorum

177. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the board may be fixed by the board and unless so fixed at any other number shall be three directors who are each natural persons. A person who holds office only as an alternate director may, if his or her appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. Any director who ceases to be a director at a board meeting may continue to be present and to act as a director and be counted in the quorum until the termination of the board meeting if no director objects. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the board within 60 minutes from the time specified for such meeting or, if during the meeting a quorum is no longer present, the meeting shall be adjourned until the immediately following business day in the event it constitutes an emergency situation (as determined by the chair (acting reasonably)), or the immediately following third business day in any other situation, or such longer period as agreed by the chair, to the same place and time of day.

Powers of directors if number falls below minimum

178. The continuing directors or a sole continuing director may, unless Article 135 applies, act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but if the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

Chair and deputy chair

179. The board may appoint one of their number to be the chair, and one of their number to be the deputy chair, of the board and may at any time remove either of them from such office. Unless he or she is unwilling to do so, the director appointed as chair, or in his or her stead the director appointed as deputy chair, shall preside at every meeting of the board at which he or she is present. If there is no director holding either of those offices, or if neither the chair nor the deputy chair is willing to preside or neither of them is present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

Validity of acts of the board

180. All acts done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee of the board, or by a person acting as a director or alternate director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or any member of the committee or alternate director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director or, as the case may be, an alternate director and had been entitled to vote.

Resolutions in writing

181. A resolution in writing agreed to by all the directors entitled to vote at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board (not being less than the number of directors required to form a quorum of the board) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board or (as the case may be) a committee of the board duly convened and held. For this purpose:

- (a) a director signifies his or her agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from the director a document indicating his or her agreement to the resolution authenticated in the manner permitted by the Act for a document in the relevant form;
- (b) the director may send the document in hard copy form or in electronic form to such address (if any) for the time being specified by the Company for that purpose;
- (c) if an alternate director signifies his or her agreement to the proposed written resolution, his or her appointor need not also signify his or her agreement; and

- (d) if a director signifies his or her agreement to the proposed written resolution, an alternate director appointed by the director need not also signify his or her agreement in that capacity.

Meetings by telephone etc.

182. Without prejudice to the first sentence of Article 176, a person entitled to be present at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if the person is able (directly or by electronic communication) to speak to and be heard by all those present or deemed to be present simultaneously. Any director participating in a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment while physically present outside the United Kingdom shall be deemed to participate at such meeting, be taken into account when calculating a quorum and be entitled to vote at such meeting unless the chair or secretary, acting reasonably and having regard to the requirements for managing the Company's tax residence to ensure that the Company remains tax resident solely in the United Kingdom, has [at least [5] Business Days in advance of the meeting] notified the relevant director that his or her physical attendance at the meeting in the United Kingdom will be required, in which case the relevant director shall use all reasonable endeavours to attend the meeting in the United Kingdom and shall only be counted in the quorum and entitled to vote at such meeting if he or she physically attends it in the United Kingdom (unless otherwise agreed by the chair or secretary, acting reasonably and having regard to the requirements for managing the Company's tax residence to ensure that the Company remains tax resident solely in the United Kingdom). If the chair or secretary notifies a director in accordance with this Article 177 that his or her physical attendance at a meeting in the United Kingdom will be required, the relevant director shall not be entitled to appoint an alternate director to attend and vote at the meeting on his or her behalf other than in exceptional circumstances, in which circumstances only an alternate director who physically attends the meeting in the United Kingdom may be appointed. A meeting of the board or of a committee of the board shall be deemed to take place where it is convened to be held or (if no director is present in that place) where one or more of the participants located in the United Kingdom are present, or, only if there are no participants located in the United Kingdom, where the chair of the meeting is. The word meeting in Articles 176, 177, 179, 180 and 182 shall be construed accordingly.

Directors' power to vote on contracts in which they are interested

183. Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of the board or a committee of the board on any resolution of the board concerning a matter in which the director has an interest (other than by virtue of interests in shares or debentures or other securities of, or otherwise in or through, the Company) which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict with the interests of the Company, unless that interest arises only because the resolution concerns one or more of the following matters:
- (a) the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by the director or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of, the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) the giving of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which the director has assumed responsibility (in whole or part and whether alone or jointly with others) under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;

- (c) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning an offer of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for subscription or purchase, in which offer the director is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he or she is to participate;
- (d) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning any other body corporate in which the director or any person connected with him or her is interested, directly or indirectly, and whether as an officer, shareholder, creditor or otherwise, if the director and any persons connected with him or her do not to his or her knowledge hold an interest (as that term is used in sections 820 to 825 of the Act) representing one per cent or more of either any class of the equity share capital (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) of such body corporate (or any other body corporate through which his or her interest is derived) or of the voting rights available to members of the relevant body corporate (any such interest being deemed for the purpose of this Article to be likely to give rise to a conflict with the interests of the Company in all circumstances);
- (e) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal for the benefit of employees of the Company or of any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award the director any privilege or benefit not generally accorded to the employees to whom the arrangement relates; and
- (f) a contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal concerning any insurance which the Company is empowered to purchase or maintain for, or for the benefit of, any directors of the Company or for persons who include directors of the Company.

For the purposes of this Article, in relation to an alternate director, an interest of his or her appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise.

184. The Company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of these Articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board.

Division of proposals

185. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including without limitation fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more directors to offices or employments with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested, the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In such cases each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote in respect of each resolution except that concerning his or her own appointment.

Decision of chair final and conclusive

186. If a question arises at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board as to the entitlement of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair of the meeting and his or her ruling in relation to any director other than himself or herself shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interests of the director concerned have not been fairly disclosed. If any such question arises in respect of the chair of the meeting, it shall be decided by resolution of the board (on which the chair shall not vote) and such resolution will be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature and extent of the interests of the chair have not been fairly disclosed.

SECRETARY

- Appointment and removal of secretary 187. The secretary shall be appointed by the board for such term, at such remuneration and on such conditions as it may think fit. Any secretary so appointed may be removed by the board, but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between the secretary and the Company.

MINUTES

- Minutes required to be kept 188. The board shall cause minutes to be recorded for the purpose of:
- (a) all appointments of officers made by the board; and
 - (b) all proceedings at meetings of the Company, the holders of any class of shares, the board and committees of the board, including the names of the directors present at each such meeting.

- Conclusiveness of minutes 189. Any such minutes, if purporting to be authenticated by the chair of the meeting to which they relate or of the next meeting, shall be sufficient evidence of the proceedings at the meeting without any further proof of the facts stated in them.

THE SEAL

- Authority required for execution of deed 190. The seal shall only be used by the authority of a resolution of the board. The board may determine who shall sign any document executed under the seal. If they do not, it shall be signed by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors. Any document may be executed under the seal by impressing the seal by mechanical means or by printing the seal or a facsimile of it on the document or by applying the seal or a facsimile of it by any other means to the document. A document executed, with the authority of a resolution of the board, in any manner permitted by section 44(2) of the Act and expressed (in whatever form of words) to be executed by the Company has the same effect as if executed under the seal.

- Certificates for shares and debentures 191. The board may by resolution determine either generally or in any particular case that any certificate for shares or debentures or representing any other form of security may have any signature affixed to it by some mechanical or electronic means, or printed on it or, in the case of a certificate executed under the seal, need not bear any signature.

REGISTERS

- Overseas and local registers 192. Subject to the provisions of the Act and other applicable laws, the Company may keep an overseas or local or other register in any place, and the board may make, amend and revoke any regulations it thinks fit about the keeping of that register.

- Authentication and certification of copies and extracts 193. Any director or the secretary or any other person appointed by the board for the purpose shall have power to authenticate and certify as true copies of and extracts from:
- (a) any document comprising or affecting the constitution of the Company, whether in hard copy form or electronic form;

- (b) any resolution passed by the Company, the holders of any class of shares, the board or any committee of the board, whether in hard copy form or electronic form; and
- (c) any book, record and document relating to the business of the Company, whether in hard copy form or electronic form (including without limitation the accounts).

If certified in this way, a document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or the minutes or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Company, the holders of any class of shares, the board or a committee of the board, whether in hard copy form or electronic form, shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company in reliance on it or them that the resolution was duly passed or that the minutes are, or the extract from the minutes is, a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

DIVIDENDS

Declaration of dividends 194. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the Shareholders, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board.

Interim dividends 195. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the board may pay interim dividends if it appears to the board that they are justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution. If the share capital is divided into different classes, the board may:

- (a) pay interim dividends on shares which confer deferred or non-preferred rights with regard to dividends as well as on shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividends, but no interim dividend shall be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear; and
- (b) pay at intervals settled by it any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to the board that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

If the board acts in good faith it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferred rights.

Declaration and payment in different currencies 196. Dividends may be declared and paid in any currency or currencies that the board shall determine. The board may also determine the exchange rate and the relevant date for determining the value of the dividend in any currency.

Apportionment of dividends 197. Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares (and subject to Article 51), all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; but no amount paid on a share in advance of the date on which a call is payable shall be treated for the purpose of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is allotted or issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

in specie

198. A general meeting declaring a dividend may, on the recommendation of the board, by ordinary resolution direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, including without limitation paid up shares or debentures of another body corporate. The board may make any arrangements it thinks fit to settle any difficulty arising in connection with the distribution, including without limitation (a) the fixing of the value for distribution of any assets, (b) the payment of cash to any Shareholder on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of Shareholders, and (c) the vesting of any asset in a trustee.

dividends:
authorising
resolution

199. The board may, if authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company (the Resolution), offer any holder of shares the right to elect to receive shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the board) of all or any dividend specified by the Resolution. The offer shall be on the terms and conditions and be made in the manner specified in Article 200, or, subject to those provisions, specified in the Resolution.

Scrip
dividends:
procedures

200. The following provisions shall apply to the Resolution and any offer made pursuant to it and Article 199.
- (a) The Resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period.
 - (b) Each holder of shares shall be entitled to that number of new shares as are together as nearly as possible equal in value to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder elects to forgo (each a new share). A certificate or report by the auditors as to the value of a new share in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that value.
 - (c) On or as soon as practicable after announcing that any dividend is to be declared or recommended, the board, if it intends to offer an election in respect of that dividend, shall also announce that intention. If, after determining the basis of allotment, the board decides to proceed with the offer, it shall notify the holders of shares of the terms and conditions of the right of election offered to them, specifying the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections or notices amending or terminating existing elections must be delivered in order to be effective.
 - (d) The board shall not proceed with any election unless the board has sufficient authority to allot shares and sufficient reserves or funds that may be appropriated to give effect to it after the basis of allotment is determined.
 - (e) The board may exclude from any offer any holders of shares where the board believes the making of the offer to them would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them.
 - (f) The dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable in cash on shares in respect of which an election has been made (the elected shares) and instead such number of new shares shall be allotted to each holder of elected shares as is arrived at on the basis stated in paragraph (b) of this Article. For that purpose the board shall appropriate out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including without limitation the profit and loss account), whether or not it is available for distribution, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the new shares to be allotted and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of new shares for allotment and distribution to each holder of elected shares as is arrived at on the basis stated in paragraph (b) of this Article.

- (g) The new shares when allotted shall rank equally in all respects with the fully paid shares of the same class then in issue except that they shall not be entitled to participate in the relevant dividend.
- (h) No fraction of a share shall be allotted. The board may make such provision as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlements including without limitation payment in cash to holders in respect of their fractional entitlements, provision for the accrual, retention or accumulation of all or part of the benefit of fractional entitlements to or by the Company or to or by or on behalf of any holder or the application of any accrual, retention or accumulation to the allotment of fully paid shares to any holder.
- (i) The board may do all acts and things it considers necessary or expedient to give effect to the allotment and issue of any share pursuant to this Article or otherwise in connection with any offer made pursuant to this Article and may authorise any person, acting on behalf of the holders concerned, to enter into an agreement with the Company providing for such allotment or issue and incidental matters. Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.
- (j) The board may, at its discretion, amend, suspend or terminate any offer pursuant to this Article.

Permitted deductions and retentions

- 201. The board may deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any Shareholder in respect of a share any moneys presently payable by the Shareholder to the Company in respect of that share. If a person is entitled by transmission to a share, the board may retain any dividend payable in respect of that share until that person (or that person's transferee) becomes the holder of that share.

Methods of payment to holders and others entitled

- 202. Any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be paid (whether in sterling or foreign currency) by such method or combination of methods as the board, in its absolute discretion, may decide. Different methods of payment may apply to different holders or groups of holders. Without limiting any other method of payment that the board may decide, the board may decide that payment shall be made wholly or partly:
 - (a) by inter-bank transfer or by electronic means or by any other means to an account (of a type approved by the board) nominated by the holder in writing or in such other manner as the board may decide; or
 - (b) in respect of an uncertificated share, by means of the relevant system (subject to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system); or

- (c) by cheque or warrant or any similar financial instrument made payable to or to the order of the holder.

Election if more than one payment method available

203. If the board decides in accordance with Article ~~202~~ that more than one method of payment of a dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be used to pay any holder or group of holders, the Company may notify the relevant holders:

- (a) of the methods of payment decided by the board; and
- (b) that the holders may nominate one of these methods of payment in writing or in such other manner as the board may decide;

and if any holder does not nominate a method of payment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Article, the dividend or other moneys may be paid by such method as the board may decide.

Notification if one payment method available

204. If the board decides in accordance with Article ~~202~~ that only one method of payment of a dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be used to pay any holder or group of holders, the Company may notify the relevant holders accordingly.

Failure to nominate an account

205. If the board decides that a payment of a dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share to any holder or group of holders shall be made to an account (of a type approved by the board) nominated by the holder, but any holder does not nominate such an account, or does not provide the details necessary to enable the Company to make a payment to the nominated account, or a payment to the nominated account is rejected or refunded, the Company shall treat the payment as an unclaimed dividend and Article ~~211~~ shall apply.

Entitlement by transmission

206. Without prejudice to Article ~~201~~, if a person is entitled by transmission to a share, the Company may, for the purposes of Articles ~~202~~, ~~203~~ and ~~205~~, rely in relation to the share on his or her written direction, designation or agreement, or notice to the Company.

Joint entitlement

207. If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, or are entitled by transmission jointly to a share, the Company may (without prejudice to Article ~~201~~):

- (a) pay any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of the share to any one of them and any one of them may give effectual receipt for that payment; and
- (b) for the purposes of Article ~~202~~, ~~203~~ and ~~205~~, rely in relation to the share on the written direction, designation or agreement of, or notice to the Company by, any one of them.

Payment by post

208. A cheque or warrant or any similar financial instrument may be sent by post:

- (a) if a share is held by a sole holder, to the registered address of the holder of the share; or
- (b) if two or more persons are the holders, to the registered address of the person who is first named in the register; or
- (c) without prejudice to Article ~~201~~, if a person is entitled by transmission to the share, as if it were a notice to be sent under Article ~~224~~; or

- (d) in any case, to such person and to such address as the person entitled to payment may direct by notice to the Company.

Discharge to Company and risk

209. Payment of a cheque or warrant or any similar financial instrument by the bank on which it was drawn, or the transfer of funds by the bank instructed to make the transfer, or payment by electronic means or by any other means approved by the board directly to an account (of a type approved by the board), or, in respect of an uncertificated share, the making of payment in accordance with the facilities and requirements of the relevant system shall be a good discharge to the Company. Every cheque or warrant or similar financial instrument sent, or transfer of funds or payment made, in accordance with these Articles shall be at the risk of the holder or person entitled. The Company shall have no responsibility for any sums lost or delayed in the course of payment by any method used by the Company in accordance with Article 202.

Interest not payable

210. No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

Treatment of unclaimed dividends or amounts treated as unclaimed

211. The amount of any unclaimed dividend, or any amount treated as an unclaimed dividend pursuant to Article 205, or other moneys payable in respect of a share that are unclaimed, may (but need not) be paid by the Company into an account separate from the Company's own account. Such payment shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it. The Company shall be entitled to cease sending dividend warrants, cheques and similar financial instruments by post or otherwise to a holder if those instruments have been returned undelivered, or left uncashed by that holder, on at least two consecutive occasions, or, following one such occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish the holder's new address. The entitlement conferred on the Company by this Article in respect of any holder shall cease if the holder claims a dividend or cashes a dividend warrant, cheque or similar financial instrument. Any dividend, or any amount treated as an unclaimed dividend pursuant to Article 205, or any other moneys payable in respect of a share shall be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company if:

- (a) the dividend, amount or moneys has or have remained unclaimed for 12 years from the date when it or they became due for payment and the board so resolves; or
- (b) the share in respect of which the dividend, amount or other moneys is or are payable is sold pursuant to Article 234 or 235, whichever is the first to occur.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

Power to capitalise

212. The board may with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:
- (a) subject to the provisions of this Article, resolve to capitalise any undistributed profits of the Company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or other fund, including without limitation the Company's share premium account and capital redemption reserve, if any;

- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the Shareholders or any class of Shareholders on the record date specified in the relevant resolution who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions;
- (c) apply that sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum but the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in paying up shares to be allotted to Shareholders credited as fully paid;
- (d) allot the shares, debentures or other obligations credited as fully paid to those Shareholders, or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other;
- (e) where shares or debentures become, or would otherwise become, distributable under this Article in fractions, make such provision as they think fit for any fractional entitlements including without limitation authorising their sale and transfer to any person, resolving that the distribution be made as nearly as practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so, ignoring fractions altogether or resolving that cash payments be made to any Shareholders in order to adjust the rights of all parties;
- (f) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the Shareholders concerned providing for either:
 - (i) the allotment to the Shareholders respectively, credited as fully paid, of any shares, debentures or other obligations to which they are entitled on the capitalisation; or
 - (ii) the payment up by the Company on behalf of the Shareholders of the amounts, or any part of the amounts, remaining unpaid on their existing shares by the application of their respective proportions of the sum resolved to be capitalised,and any agreement made under that authority shall be binding on all such Shareholders;
- (g) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to the ordinary resolution; and
- (h) for the purposes of this Article, unless the relevant resolution provides otherwise, if the Company holds treasury shares of the relevant class at the record date specified in the relevant resolution, it shall be treated as if it were entitled to receive the dividends in respect of those treasury shares which would have been payable if those treasury shares had been held by a person other than the Company.

Record dates for dividends etc.

213. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Company or the board may:
- (a) fix any date as the record date for any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue, which may be on or at any time before or after any date on which the dividend, distribution, allotment or issue is declared, paid or made;
 - (b) for the purpose of determining which persons are entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company, or a separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares, and how many votes such persons may cast, specify in the notice of meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting (which shall, if the board so specifies, be calculated taking no account of any part of a day that is not a working day), by which a person must be entered on the register in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting; changes to the register after the time specified by virtue of this Article shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting; and
